Hi Rakesh

Further to our discussion today, we are writing to you regarding your current position within the deployment pool and we sincerely acknowledge the dedication and commitment you have brought to your work at Prodapt. This communication is written acknowledging your contributions to our organisation.

We want you to know that we have made every effort to identify a suitable opportunity within our organisation that aligns with your skills and experience. Despite these ongoing efforts, we have not been able to identify a matching role for you beyond this date.

In light of the above, we wish to formally notify you that your 60 days notice period, will commence on 11-05-2026. Accordingly, your Last Working Day with Prodapt will be 10-07-2026. The standard Full & Final settlement process will be initiated as per company policy.

During this transitional period, we will continue to actively explore all suitable internal opportunities within Prodapt. Should we identify a fitting role for you, you will be transitioned seamlessly to that assignment, with full continuity of your employment and without any interruption. However, if we are unable to place you in a new role by your LWD, your release from Prodapt will be processed on the date stated above.

Additionally, should you receive an external offer during this period and wish to opt for an early release, we are happy to support you in that transition. We request you to notify us at least 3–4 working days prior to your intended release date to ensure a smooth exit process.

Your efforts, professionalism, and contributions have been genuinely valued, and we are truly grateful for the time you have invested in Prodapt. We wish you every success and fulfilment in the exciting opportunities that lie ahead of you.

We request you to kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter at your earliest convenience, and no later than 48 hours from the time of receipt. If we do not hear from you within this period, this notice will be considered as duly acknowledged.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to us should you have any questions, require any clarification, or wish to discuss anything further. We are here to support you through this transition.

Regards
